Washington Waits Further Word From Torpedoed Warship

Many Important Things About Attack Remain Unknown in Capital

Washington, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The capital today grimly awaited further word from the torpedo-damaged U. S. destroyer Kearny, reported laboring toward an encounter with a raider 350 miles southwest of Iceland.

The navy's terse official announcement, issued shortly after the attack yesterday morning, left many important questions unanswered. It did not specify whether the torpedo was fired by a submarine, surface raider or warplane; the nationality of the destroyer's adversary was not made known, and the degree of damage was not indicated, further than that the Kearny was able to proceed under her own power.

Naval men pointed out, however, that a damaged warship could hardly risk using her radio at length while in a danger zone, and details of the encounter were expected to be made clear after she reached port.

There was widespread relief in the capital over the announcement that "no casualties to personnel were indicated in dispatches received by the navy department." Destroyers of the Kearny's class normally carry about 200 officers and men.

President Roosevelt, weekend at Hyde Park, made it clear to reporters that the torpedoing occurred within the American defense zone. But for answers to other questions, he referred the

Green Designates Oct. 31 to Nov. 4 Illinois Corn Week

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Governor Dwight H. Green today issued a proclamation designating the week of Oct. 27 to Nov. 4 as Illinois Corn Week.

During the same week the state and national cornhusking contests will be held in LaSalle county, the state contest on Oct. 31 and the national event on Nov. 3.

The proclamation reads:
"Corn has long reigned as the undisputed king of Illinois corn crops. Around this noble cereal cluster much of the history and the romance of agriculture as carried on in the American midland, robust heart of our republic."

Is Pioneer Crop
"Corn was the dependable, nourishable crop planted by our pioneering forefathers in newly turned prairie sod and in stumpy woodland clearings. Corn today, while keeping its traditional place in farm economy, is taking on steadily widening importance in the world of modern industry."

"In consonance with the high rank of Illinois as a corn producing state, the national corn hus-

Heavyweight Champion Reclassified; May Be in Army in November

Chicago, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Joe Louis' future training activities for defense of his heavyweight boxing championship probably will be in one of the nation's army camps.

Chairman T. O. Fentress of local selective service board No. 84 said that Louis last night was placed in class 1-A, subject to immediate military service and probably would be inducted into the army some time next month.

The title holder, who earlier this week was examined by draft board physicians, was placed in class 3-A last January in view of his status as a married man. He had listed his wife, mother, a niece, his sister and his father-in-law as dependents, draft officials said.

On Sept. 9 Louis was tentatively reclassified by his local board in class 1-A, but board members declined to comment on the change. Joe frequently has stated that he would be willing to join the army and he did not "want any favors."

In Kearny Crew

Washington, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Three Illinois men were members of the crew of the U. S. destroyer Kearny, torpedoed off Iceland yesterday, the navy department announced in making public the crew personnel. They were: George A. Calvert of Gillespie; Robert R. Rogey, 1018 Vernon St., Princeton; and Samuel J. Wells, 2054 Washington Blvd., Chicago.

Most Powerful Army Britain Has Ever Formed in Africa Is Ready

With British Forces in Egypt, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The most powerful army Britain has ever assembled in Africa lies spread over the western desert for defense of Egypt and for whatever offensive action against Italian-German forces in Libya may be decided on by the British.

The plans of General Sir Claude J. E. Auchinleck, British Middle East commander, have not been confided to this correspondent, nor has any member of the general staff told me what is in prospect. But there is much evidence to support a belief that a terrific battle will be fought before very long along these North African shores. It seems obvious that the Budget Bureau Tells Three Ways to Trim Non-Defense Costs

Work-Relief, Farm and Youth-Aid Programs Would Be Hit

Washington, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The budget bureau today told congress three ways to make big cuts in non-defense expenditures—did not recommend any of them—and said the greatest reduction would hit the federal work-relief, farm and youth-aid programs.

The bureau report, prepared in response to a senate finance committee resolution, said that "many of the indicated downward revisions would seriously impair the defense effort and other vital government activities."

Saying that the budget could be reduced only by more economical government management, curtailment of economic and social aid programs or reduction of existing governmental functions, the report disclosed that $450,000,000 of "reserves" already had been set aside from appropriations for the 1941-42 fiscal year.

"This unusually large amount appears possible in the light of improved business conditions," the bureau said. "A larger reserve can not be established at this time without a revision of the functions and programs which are the result of congressional enactments."

Asks Three Budgets

Under the finance committee resolution, Budget Director Harold D. Smith was requested to supply three budgets showing a non-defense spending reduction for the present fiscal year of $1,000,000,000, $1,500,000,000 and $2,000,000,000.

Smith's report showed that a $2,000,000,000 cut would require a reduction of 94.8 per cent in the aid-to-youth program, a 73.9 per cent reduction in work relief, a 45.5 per cent slash in agricultural expenditures and a 75 per cent cut in supplemental items among all agencies.

For a $1,500,000,000 reduction, the cuts would be 67.5 per cent for aid to youth, 49.3 per cent for work relief, 44.1 for agriculture and 50 per cent for supplemental items.

Non-Defense Expenditures

The report placed non-defense expenditures for the present fiscal year at $6,581,000,000, excluding debt retirement. But it added that non-defense spending was difficult to define because many government activities affected the defense program.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.) sponsored both the resolution calling for the report and a parallel proposal, recently approved, setting up a 14-man committee to study methods of cutting down non-essential expenditures.

Edward Cudahy, Sr. Packer, Dies Today

Chicago, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Edward A. Cudahy, Sr., 81, a founder and the head of the Cudahy Packing Company died today of a heart ailment. He had spent 68 years in the packing business, starting as a lad of 13 employed in driving cattle from the pens to the slaughtering house.

A native of Milwaukee, Cudahy left school to work for the Plankinton Packing Company there as a stockyard "cowboy," skinner of carcasses and meat cutter. He learned German to help him in his contacts with customers and while still a young man was employed by Armour & Co. in executive jobs in Chicago.

With the formation of the Armour-Cudahy Co., Cudahy was made general manager with headquarters in Omaha. In 1880, Cudahy and his elder brother, Michael, formed the Cudahy Packing Company. On the death of Michael in 1910, Edward succeeded to the presidency. In 1926 he in turn was succeeded by his son, Edward A. Jr., and became chairman of the board.

Cudahy was married in 1884 to Miss Elizabeth Murphy of Milwaukee. A son and four daughters were born to them.

Undecided

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Allen Miller doesn't know whether his Chesapeake retriever pup is the sarcastic type or just over-enthusiastic. Miller, chief clerk of the state fish and game department, took the pup on its first duck hunt. He shot twice at a flock of mallards but nothing fell.

The pup swam out, picked up a wooden decoy and laid it at Miller's feet.

Counterattacking Reds Hold German Invaders at Bay

By The Associated Press
Soviet counterattacks were reported holding the Germans at bay in the 17-day-old battle for Moscow today, while in the Far East, Germany's axis partner, Japan, was the target of stern new British warnings against an assault on Russia via Siberia.

London newspapers notified Japan that any attempt to spread the war would be met by the combined British and United States fleets.

Reuters, British news agency, quoted a Stockholm dispatch as saying that Red army counterblows had driven the Germans back in the northwest, recapturing the strategic town of Kalinin, 95 miles from Moscow.

Other British reports quoted the Moscow radio as saying soviet troops on Tuesday recaptured Orel, key rail center 200 miles south of Moscow.

A spokesman for the Netherlands government-in-exile in London said every facility of the Dutch East Indies would be placed at the disposal of the United States in the event of war with Japan, and implied that Indies bases for the United States Pacific fleet could be had for the asking.

In Washington, senatorial demands for a hard-fisted United States policy toward Japan gained impetus as Japan's new predominant military government, headed by Premier Lieut. Gen. Eiki Tojo, held its first cabinet meeting.

Firm With United States
Carrying the triple portfolios of premier, war minister and home minister, Tojo was reported to have pledged Japan to a firm policy with the United States.

Tojo called on the empire for "all cooperation and aid," and in a brief radio speech he asserted that "speedy action and iron will are the only way in which to overcome the present difficulties."

He also declared that Japan must "strengthen our ties with the treaty nations"—an apparent reference to Japan's alliance with the Rome-Berlin axis.

Washington reaction was pointed in a statement by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), who declared that the only way to deal with Japan was to "draw a line and warn them that if they dare cross it there will be shooting."

Tell of Attack on Convoy

At sea, the German high command reported that Nazi U-boats had sunk 10 merchant ships and two escorting "enemy" destroyers in an attack on a strongly-protected convoy en route to England from North America.

The high command said the attacks, lasting several days, were executed after the convoy had entered what was vaguely described as "the blockade zone," but there was no hint whether this meant the waters east or west of Iceland.

The navy announced that the new $5,000,000 U. S. destroyer Kearny was torpedoed yesterday morning while on patrol 350 miles south and west of Iceland.

In Berlin, Nazi quarters said they still had no information from the German Admiralty on the Kearny report and asserted that President Roosevelt and "his whips in congress undoubtedly find the incident most welcome in order to hasten their aggressive program."

Japanese Policies Now Under Control of Military Crowd

New Premier in Office With Reformed Anti- American Cabinet

Tokyo, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Premier Lieut. Gen. Eiki Tojo, chief of Japan's new predominantly military government, today declared Japan would continue her efforts to create a prosperity sphere in East Asia and called upon the empire for "all cooperation and aid."

In a statement of policy made after the first meeting of the new cabinet at the premier's residence, Tojo said Japan would continue to contribute toward world peace through execution of her policy of bringing about a settlement of the China affair and establishment of the prosperity sphere.

"Internally, we must consolidate a war-time structure while externally we strengthen our ties with treaty nations," he said.

He said that speedy execution of suitable measures was necessary to overcome the crisis confronting Japan, and added he was "prepared to do my best to dispose of the affairs of state in my capacity as premier."

The new government, said to be pledged to a firm policy toward the United States, took office today under Tojo, a veteran army officer and son of an officer. By special imperial consideration, Tojo will be permitted to remain in active army service.

Becomes Powerful Factor

He was war minister in the Kono cabinet which fell Thursday and becomes one of the most powerful premiers in recent Japanese history by combining the war and home ministries with his position as head of the government.

The cabinet, sworn in before Emperor Hirohito at the palace, includes in key positions men who are intimately acquainted with the China affair and with Japan's relations with Russia and the axis.

The ministers are:

Foreign: Shigenori Togo, former ambassador to both Berlin and Moscow.

Navy: Admiral Shigetaro Shimada, former commander of the fleet in China waters and present commandant of the Yokosuka navy yard near Tokyo.

Agriculture, Forestry and Communications: Vice Admiral Ken Terashima.

Finance: Okunobu Kaya, finance minister in an earlier cabinet headed by Prince Fumimaro Konoye.

Commerce and Industry: Shinsuke Kishi, former vice minister of the department.

Welfare: Lieut. Gen. Chikahiko Koizumi.

Justice: Michio Iwamura.

Agriculture, Forestry and Education: Kunihiko Hashida.

Minister without portfolio: Maj. Gen. Teichi Suzuki.

The last five held the same portfolios in the cabinet of Prince Kono, which resigned because of its acknowledged inability to solve grave problems of policy.

Premier Tojo thus took a firm grasp on the internal situation through the home office and equally tight control of the army machine abroad through the war ministry.

Bell Telephone Co. Plans New Crossing of River at Grandy

The War Department engineering offices at Rock Island has sent out notices of an application, by the Illinois Bell Telephone company of Rockford for a permit to construct aerial telephone crossings over Rock river at Grand Detour. Objections are to be filed at the offices before Oct. 5. At present, the telephone wires of the company cross Rock river on top of the existing highway bridge. Upon completion of the new Grand Detour bridge, it will be necessary for the company to remove these lines and construct a temporary crossing until the old structure is razed. After removal of the old bridge, or by Dec. 1, 1942, the temporary crossing will be removed and a permanent crossing at the site of the old bridge will be completed, the application states.

Louella Parsons' Day Festivities in Dixon Netted $1,402 for Katherine Shaw Bethea Hospital, Report Shows

Due to late receipt of some bills incurred, the financial report of the Louella Parsons-Ronald Reagan Homecoming celebration was delayed for several days, as the financial committee chairman desired to present a detailed and accurate report.

The city of Dixon enjoyed one of the largest celebrations in its history on this occasion, when approximately 75,000 persons from New York to California came here. The entire program was self-financed and did not necessitate a general solicitation of merchants and professional men for individual contributions. Similar promotions in other cities of the size of Dixon have required a financial drive and in one mid-west city where a Hollywood premier was held, the final financial statement of the local Chamber of Commerce on that occasion showed a deficit amounting to nearly $2,000.

As a result of the Dixon celebration the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital received more than $1,400, and according to reports, the wide publicity given this occasion influenced and encouraged other voluntary contributions to the hospital fund.

Numerous reports have come to the attention of the executive committee purporting to convey the impression that the celebration could not have been a financial success in view of its elaborate presentation. In presenting the financial statement in today's edition of The Evening Telegraph, the committee believes that any such criticism was unjust and unfair. All outstanding bills have been paid, as shown in the report, and a fund of $99 is withheld for possible contingent liabilities which may be late in being presented.

London Papers Warn Japs Against Spread of Conflict

London, Oct. 18.—(AP)—London newspapers, commenting on the Tokyo cabinet shakeup, warned Japan today that any attempt to spread the war in the Far East would be met by the combined powers of the British and United States fleets.

Hands-off signs with respect to embattled Russia were posted editorially in declarations such as the afternoon Star's assertion that any move against the soviet would bring down upon Japan "a punishing war."

"No Japanese should be left in any doubt," the Star said, "that if his government tries to carry the flame of war into the Pacific the fire will be put out by the combined force of the British and American navies."

The News Chronicle expressed belief that "a single fleet action could decide the issue."

Would Remove Threat
"If the allies gained the day," it said, "an ever present threat would have been finally removed from the Pacific."

The Mail said British imperial action must conform to United States leadership in the Pacific.

The Herald suggested also that the first step was up to the United States and went on to say the "paths of duty and expediency" forced Britain to concentrate upon her current endeavors, "now more vital to the outcome of the war."

For Confederation of U. S. and Britain

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 18.—(AP)—The confederation of the United States and the British empire was advocated in a speech last night by William J. McCulloch, publisher of the Hamilton, Ontario, Spectator.

Speaking at the annual banquet of the Illinois State Press Association, McCulloch outlined Canada's war effort and denied what he described as an American First Committee charge that Canadian boys refused to do what American boys are conscripted to do.

Asserting that Canada did not have to enter the war but chose to do so and even asked King George VI to declare war for Canada, the publisher said that "all Canadians from 21 to 24 years of age are being called into service for the duration of the war."

Canadians, he said, have "a solid devotion rather than a mockish sentimentality" to what they are fighting for.

Another speaker was R. B. Howard, president of the National Editorial Association, who declared that "the foundation of the country must be laid in the small towns and in the small town newspapers."

Frequency Modulation Radio Used in Unusual Experiment in Hospital

Chicago, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Frequency modulation radio music was used at Henrotin hospital Friday in an unusual experiment to ease the pains of childbirth.

Mrs. Pauline Siegel, 29, listened to a program of light classical and popular music for more than an hour as Dr. Edward L. Cornell delivered a son by caesarian section under local anesthesia.

Dr. Cornell said that the experiment was a success and should be given further trials.

The War Today!

(Telegraph Special Service)
(This daily feature, conducted by Dewitt Mackenzie, is written today by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

For the second time in a little more than a month, the Germans today use a high command communique for political as well as military purposes at a critical moment in the battle of the Atlantic.

It is more than a coincidence that the Nazi high command—one day after the U. S. navy reported the torpedoing of the new American destroyer Kearny off Iceland—chooses to say that German submarines have sunk ten "enemy" merchantmen and two "enemy" destroyers after a "strongly" protected convoy from North America was attacked . . . after entering the blockade zone.

The Germans obviously mean the German blockade zone which extends from Iceland to the territorial waters of Greenland, the approximate area in which the Kearny was torpedoed but not sunk.

It is also curious that the communique makes the point that the two destroyers allegedly sunk were attacked at night; thus it may be trying to get across the point that the U-boats could not distinguish British from American warships.

Without trying to weigh the truth or lack of truth of the German communique, it is difficult to escape the impression that the Germans want to create these beliefs:

That Hitler's orders to sink any vessel, merchant or warship, which comes within German U-boat sights on its way to England are being carried out to the letter; that U. S. naval protection of ships en route to Iceland is ineffective and only a peril to American warships; that therefore any further changes in the U. S. neutrality laws to arm or permit freer movement of American flag ships on the Atlantic are both useless and dangerous.

It may even be that the Germans hope Americans will think the Kearny was one of the two destroyers "sunk," and that they will thus become querulous of the integrity of the navy's own announcement. Promotion of skepticism and defeatist rumor in other nations is nothing new in the Nazi book.

Washington sources already have voiced the suspicion that the Kearny attack was an attempt to remind Japan at the outset of

Hard-Fisted Stand Against Japan By Uncle Sam Urged

Three Senators Express Themselves Strongly; Wheeler Doubtful

Washington, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The state department disclosed today that Secretary Hull and Undersecretary Welles had lengthy conferences late yesterday with Kamekura, Japanese minister to Washington.

There was a "general interchange of views" on American-Japanese relations, a department spokesman said without elaboration.

Some officials expressed the belief that Kamekura recently returned from Tokyo, informed the department that the long pending negotiations looking toward a solution of differences between the two countries would continue despite formation of a new Japanese cabinet believed pledged to a firm policy toward the United States.

Meanwhile three senators demanded that the United States adopt a hard-fisted policy toward Japan in what they viewed as an explosive situation in the Far East.

Senators Norris (Ind-Neb), Pepper (D-Fla.) and Gillette (D-Ia.) outlined their views on the subject after navy department officials here disclosed that some American merchant ships, presumably in Oriental waters, had been ordered to port for instructions.

"Can't Appense Japan"
"We can't appense Japan any more than we can appense Hitler," said the veteran Senator Norris. "If Japan wants to attack us, she'll attack. All she is waiting for is to try and feel certain she is on the winning side."

Pepper said that the "only way to deal with them is to draw a line and warn them that if they cross it there will be shooting. We should let Japan know that we have certain interests we will maintain even if they meet resistance and that the only way to get along with us is a clear-cut and definite understanding."

Gillette said he viewed the navy announcement about merchant ship orders as an indication that administration officials "have become pretty discouraged about our efforts to reach an understanding with Japan."

Wheeler Doubtful
A contrasting opinion came from Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) who said he doubted that recent developments in the Far East "mean war for the United States."

"I cannot imagine anything more helpful for Hitler than us jumping into war with Japan," Wheeler said. "If there is any likelihood of our going to war with Japan, then we ought to concentrate efforts on building our own defenses and keeping planes, tanks, and submarines at home rather than giving them to Russia, England, or any other country."

The burst of senatorial comment came after published stories that American and British ships in the Far East had been ordered to ports for instructions. The navy department announcement said its action regarding United States vessels was not new or unusual because "for some time the movement of American merchant ships has been controlled and directed as seemed desirable."

Says Farmers Are Not to Be Blamed For Higher Prices

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Although farmers are being paid higher prices for their products, they are not to blame for the increased costs of food and clothing, says Chairman Lee M. Gentry of the Illinois agricultural defense board.

Gentry told a group of central Illinois bankers last night that in recent years "you were getting his (farmer) products at 'bargain' prices." He asserted that the higher prices paid the farmers for wheat would justify an increase in the cost of a pound loaf of bread about a quarter of a cent.

"If the cost of bread has gone up more than that," Gentry told the bankers, "it's due to factors other than high farm prices."

"Our War"
Gentry explained the drive by the farm defense board to increase farm production, with only corn and wheat surpluses under AAA allotments, as part of the national defense effort. "We've decided this is our war," he added.

Another speaker, Earl C. Adams of Jerseyville, president of the Illinois Bankers association, urged unified support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy, told the bankers that "whether we like it or not, we are in a war now."

Adams urged the bankers to redouble their efforts to sell defense bonds, stating that "if we can fight that war with material resources instead of the blood of our young men and the tears of widows and orphans, so much the better for us x x x."

Spectacular Glove Designs Featured

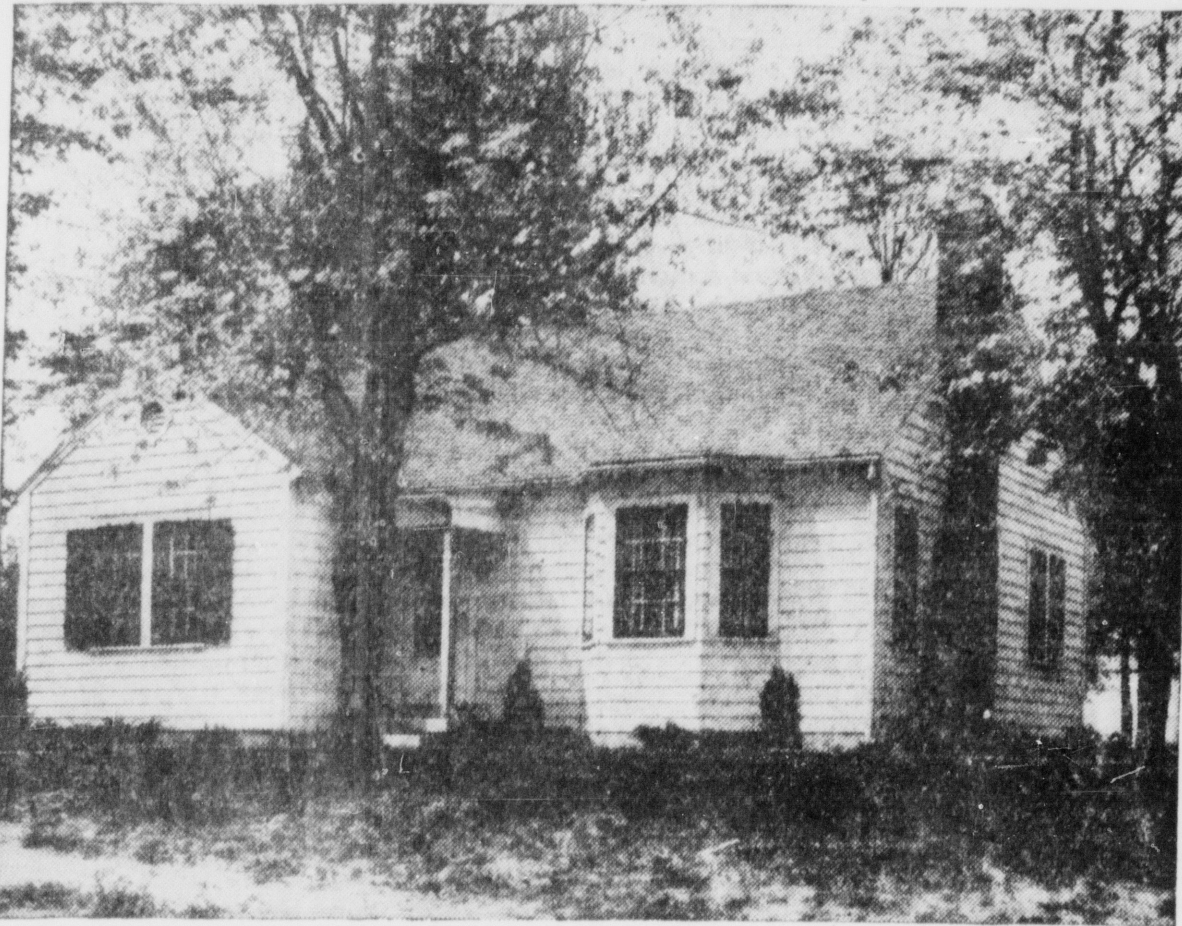

Combined With Jewelry In Ensembles

The intrigue of your costume this fall and winter will, to a great extent, be determined by the gloves you wear. To demonstrate, picture an all black dress styled with utmost simplicity, no trimming, no furbelows, just stark black. Likewise the wide-brimmed hat is utterly black. For the final act in this fashion drama add a pair of elbow-length suede gloves in vivid cerise with a glittering bejeweled pin.

Which brings us to a very interesting highspot in fashion news, namely the ensembling of huge bracelets brilliant jeweled pins and gorgeous finger rings with gloves. In some of the better shops they combine the jewels and the gloves, and you buy the ensemble. With the added glamour of jewels massed against them for background, gloves become the piece de resistance of one's costume.

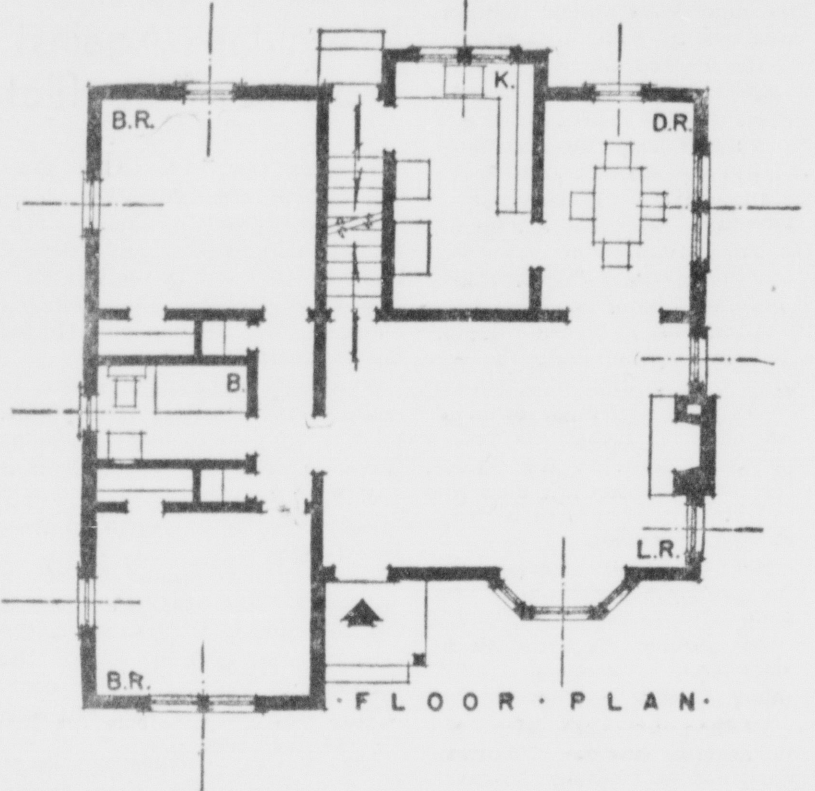

Gloves in every length, from wrist to shoulder, are being sold, and there is a type for every occasion from the most casual to the most formal. To wear with long, slick sleeves (many new dresses have them) the flared gauntlet glove so beloved in days of yore has come into its own this season. Ever so clever with your tweed suits! There is also a hand-stitched brief wrist-length glove shown in the newer collections that is smart looking with tweeds.

Even Low-Cost Homes May Now Claim Beauty Once Associated Only With Expensive Dwellings

The idea of endowing the low-cost home with charm and beauty regardless of its size is no longer a new one, but seldom is the effect achieved as successfully as here. The house is simple and unpretentious, yet it has the dignity wanted in a home. The interior plan offers nothing new but is a logical and comfortable room arrangement. The living room is unusually large with a fireplace flanked by two windows, while on the front is an attractive bay window. The bedrooms and bathroom are connected by a hallway which provides complete privacy.

In the Mid-west this property was valued at $5,600 and was financed with a Federal Housing Administration insured mortgage of $5,000. Average monthly payments on a 25-year mortgage of this amount, exclusive of taxes and hazard insurance, total approximately $29. The cost of the property will vary in other localities.

3-Coat Paint Job Protects Plywood

The best paint job for protecting regular wood siding also is recognized as the best for exterior (waterproof) plywood when used for house siding. Three coats of high quality exterior paint, containing high percentages of white lead and oil, is recommended for good service. Excellent results have been attained when the first or priming coat is of paint thinned with an equal part of linseed oil.

American railroads now have thousands of freight cars and refrigerator cars built of plywood; similar material was used for the same purpose in Russia 60 years ago.

SAFETY DEVICE FOR DOORS

There has recently been placed on the market a device which is called the protective eye. It consists of a door knocker with a center consisting of a bull's eye of one way glass which makes a small window which according to the manufacturer, enables the housewife to look through the glass without the caller on the outside being aware of the inspection.

Squealing Pigs Form Early Theater Obligation

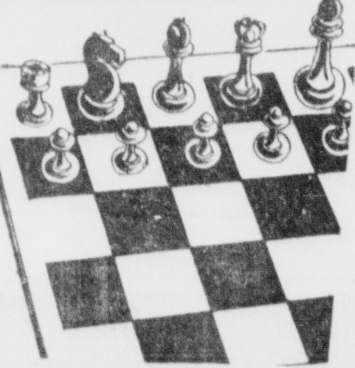

More than a decade before the Civil War, the Jefferson theatrical troupe was touring Illinois, playing at Galena, Peoria, Pekin, Springfield and other cities, the Illinois Writers' Project, W. P. A., reports. Pekin lacked a theater, so the productions were staged in a large frame building alongside of which was a corral for pigs. During one play Mrs. Jefferson (mother of the immortal Joseph Jefferson) was singing "Home, Sweet Home," when the pigs began to squeal dismally. The elder Jefferson turned it off with a laugh, saying the pigs' voices were in keeping with the sad strains of the song.

Remodeling Work Starts In Kitchens

Additional Cabinets and Work Surfaces Help Housewives

Inside improvement to bring new usability, rejuvenated appearance to the American home, usually starts in the kitchen.

As this is the most-used room in the house, its convenience and beauty play a predominate part in determining the degree of "gracious living" in the average small home. And during winter months, when outside building often is limited, is the right time for remodeling the cookery department—or other rooms, too.

The kitchen definitely is "her domain." As such, remodeling must be planned to meet her demands. Of course, arrangement of components necessarily is determined by the floor plan as well as location of windows—and the view from them.

But one factor that makes for "trudgery-proof" kitchens is abundance of cabinets and work surfaces. Usually built of fir plywood, these are grouped around the sink, range and refrigerator. Of exceptional usefulness are cupboards that fit in between the utilities and have counter-high tops.

Flush Doors

Many of the modern kitchens have flush-type cabinet doors cut from plywood. Popular also are lapped type doors.

If a corner of the room is to be devoted to a snack nook, a smart, practical installation to set the area apart, is a counter. Its top automatically does double work as a serving area and as an added space for preparing food. Below is additional storage space.

Walls and ceiling come in for new treatment, too. Painting often accomplishes the improvement. Or cracked and worn surfaces can be covered with plywood before refinishing. Before new linoleum is placed, a worn or uneven floor should be made smooth.

The color combination and its enactment offer expression of individuality. Predominant treatment is of pastel walls with white or near white ceiling. Surprisingly pleasant, however, are new kitchens that have off-white walls and ceilings of deep rose or other colors.

Secret to sparkle in the room is injection of bright colors in limited area.

With only two hours of instruction, the average automobile driver would be able to "solo" a new "foolproof" airplane designed for private pilots. The two-place monoplane has tricycle landing gear and a 75-h. p. Lycoming engine.

Real damage can be inflicted upon your battery by failure to use any but properly distilled water.

Reclaimed Space Gives New Room

Home owners who heeded the recent fire prevention week, in many cases re-discovered that there actually is space in their houses for building a playroom for the all-important younger members of the family.

With rubbish cleaned out of the basement or attic and spare pieces of furniture, trunks and luggage stored properly the house just seems to be bigger, that's all. And right now is an opportune time to line these "waste" parts of the house so Jim and Mary can play indoors during winter months without literally "destroying" the routine of their mother's day.

Plywood panels were made to do just this kind of a building job because they come in big sheets that go on quickly to cut labor costs. Or the amateur can nail them in place. Mighty important, plywood is kickproof, crackproof.

The walls can be stained, painted papered. With a little planning and with inclusion of a few built-in plywood cabinets to house toys, the newly recovered space can serve also as a recreation room for grown-ups or a spare bedroom.

CLOSET INSULATION

Ofttimes there will be a closet that has the back or side wall next to a chimney. Such a closet will be too hot for storage of furs or woollens. Furthermore, such a closet is attractive to moths and other insects. To overcome this condition, cover the chimney wall with a stiff insulation board and possibly two layers re better, and if possible have an air space between the two thicknesses of insulation board.

Within a few hours any unlighted temporary airfield can be illuminated for night take-offs and landings with portable lighting equipment tested recently by the U. S. Army Air Forces at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

DID YOU KNOW?

Nearly a ton and a half of steel and iron are used in the construction of an average house? This goes into plumbing, bath and kitchen fixtures, nails and many parts. This is only 50% more steel than is used in the average automobile.

ONE OF OUR MANY SERVICES

If you'd like to know how to go about making those improvements in your home that you have been wishing for, why not call us and let our planning department draw up suggestions and explain how easy it is to swing the deal for a few dollars a month. No obligation, of course.

PSYCHIC!

A general and a colonel walking down the street passed many privates and each time the colonel would salute he would mutter, "The same to you."

The general's curiosity soon got the better of him, and he asked:

"Why do you always say that?" The colonel answered: "I was once a private and I know what they are thinking."

RIG BLOW

"The same tornado that blew away my father's wagon dumped an automobile in the front yard."

"Huh, that's no tornado. That was a trade wind."

Special Spinner Machine for Edges Makes Sanding Easy Task

No more spotty corners or edges when you sand your floor if you use our spinner or edger machine.

Your roof should not only keep you dry—but warm too. Nearly half of the heat you lose to the outside during winter goes off through the roof. The roof is as important as doors and windows in conserving heat.

A new shingle roof, put on over the old, not only keeps your roof water tight, but seals the heat inside where you need it. Even if your roof does not leak right now, it's wise economy to build up its thickness as a protection against winter.

IF YOU ASK OUR PRICE FOR A NEW CENTIGRADE CEDAR SHINGLES ROOF YOU'LL NOT BE OBLIGATED—COME IN

Delta Kappa Gammas Hear Fascinating Talk on Arabia

Much of interest concerning a country that is a closed book to most travelers was revealed last evening for some 50 Delta Kappa Gammas of the northwest region of the Greek letter group, who gathered at the Loveland Community House for dinner as guests of Alpha chapter of DeKalb. The speaker was Mrs. Elizabeth Dame, an honorary member, who was the first American woman to visit the interior of Arabia and its capital, Riyadh, a city formerly inaccessible except by camel train.

Mrs. Dame and her husband, a doctor, have made five visits to the capital as the invited guests of his royal highness, the king, a proud but shrewd ruler who has accomplished more to unify his country than any king for some years. Dr. and Mrs. Dame returned to the United States about two months ago, for further study at the University of Chicago, and expect to return to their former post in coastal islands in the gulf of Persia, if world conditions permit.

Mrs. Dame's Arabian court costume was as colorful as her informal lecture, delivered in phrases that were both humorous and enlightening. Over deep purple, elaborately embroidered with gold flowers, she was wearing voluminous drapery of black silk lace, also gold-embroidered and extending into a long train. The sleeves were long and flowing, as was the inevitable veil.

Arabia continues to be a "closed country," Mrs. Dame's engrossed audience learned. Its homes, as well as its cities are walled, and no one is permitted entrance to the capital without an invitation from the king.

"The king has more than 150 wives," Mrs. Dame said, "and although he is allowed but four at a time, he takes pride in the fact that none of his spouses have ever left him in anger." "Every Friday," she continued, "he calls the women of his household together to tell them of happenings throughout the kingdom, and they, in turn, also give reports. And it's surprising how much gossip they are able to collect!"

On one of the couple's visits to the interior, Mrs. Dame was permitted to be present at one of the Friday meetings.

When ever Dr. Dame's presence is needed, as illness occurs in the royal family, a native family is asked to move out to make the Americans comfortable. On one occasion, the couple found themselves in an apartment without a bath. A native hurriedly consulted the king, whose terse order was: "Build them a bath room." In three days' time, workmen had completed their task.

One thing is certain. There are going to be more taxes and higher taxes for everyone.

Wouldn't it be smart to prepare for them now in order to ease this burden when March 15, 1942 rolls around?

Here's our suggestion. Save something every month in a special fund for next year's income tax. You still have plenty of time and we'll help you get started.

"Blind Alley" Is Players' Second Show of Season

"Blind Alley," the second play in the Community Players' first season, is to be presented Thursday evening, Jan. 22. It was written by James Warwick, and was copyrighted in 1935 under the title of "Smoke Screen," but has continued in such high popularity that it still requires a royalty of $25 from amateur groups. "Blind Alley" is an exciting melodrama, holding audience interest almost relentlessly, and offers plenty of thrills of an unusual type.

Neither the director nor cast have been chosen for the second and third shows of the season. New talent will probably be available within the group before the time of the next casting.

The Players are reminding their townspeople that season tickets are now on sale, but will not be available after the night of their first production, "The Male Animal," scheduled for next Thursday evening.

The Community Players is a non-profit organization, and anyone over high school age is eligible for membership. Regular meetings are held at 8 o'clock on the first Wednesday evening of each month at the Loveland Community House.

JOLLY CLUB

Mrs. William McClanahan was hostess at an all-day meeting of the Jolly club on Thursday, her guests including 14 members and five visitors. A scramble luncheon was followed by a brief business meeting, games, and poems read by Mrs. Hattie Weisz.

Mrs. Homer Merling of Parsons, Kan., a former member, was among those attending. Mrs. Weisz is to be the November hostess.

Amos Harmon Is Ninety-Six; 96 Guests Honor Him

Ninety-six relatives and friends were received at the home of Mrs. Dollie Harmon in Forreston last Sunday, honoring Amos Harmon of Haldane, whose ninety-sixth birthday anniversary occurred on Thursday.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harmon and Mrs. Howard Harmon, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Alvin Rodermel and Mrs. Clinton Harmon. A family dinner at noon was attended by Mr. Harmon's four grandsons, Russell, Howard, Forrest and Donald, and three great-grandchildren.

Numerous gifts, including flowers and a huge birthday cake, were presented to Mr. Harmon, who is in excellent health for one of his age. He maintains an interest in present-day happenings, and listens to the radio, but due to impaired sight, does not follow newspapers as well as he would like.

The aged man's parents came west in a covered wagon in 1839, settling in what was then Mt. Morris township. He served as moderator at the town meeting which later divided the former Mt. Morris township into Lincoln and Mt. Morris townships.

Mr. Harmon was born near West Branch, and has always resided in Lincoln township. He was the youngest of ten children, all except one of whom lived to be more than 90 years of age. His sister, Mrs. Harriet Kennedy, was the mother of the first white child born in Carroll county.

A Thought For Today
Thou hast granted me life and favour,
and thy visitation, hath preserved my spirit.
Job 10:12.

To look up and not down. To look forward and not back. To look out and not in, and to lend a hand.—Edward Everett Hale.

The Return to Barbarism
In the months just before Europe was plunged into World War II, every responsible statesman in the world said that if the war were allowed to happen the whole continent might return to barbarism. Even some of the less responsible statesmen, including Hitler, recognized that.

The war Hitler felt he must have anyway has been sweeping across Europe for more than two years now, and it seems measurably close to achieving the predicted result.

These things come one by one. Last we be beguiled by their peaceable advent into forgetting them, let us review a few things which this war has brought.

First, the entire fabric of honorable relations by treaty has been sadly damaged, and must at some time be laboriously reweaved. The black and calculated treachery with which Hitler has repudiated treaties and the given word, time after time, and according to an avowed policy to keep no treaty any longer than it is to his advantage to do so, has sadly shaken throughout the world, and temporarily destroyed in Europe, men's faith in pledges. That is a long step toward barbarism.

Second, the killing in their beds of innocent women and children has been accepted as a normal means of carrying on war. This has happened in wars before, but never has been generally accepted. Today it is so accepted, as the fruit of the development of the bomber and the readiness to use it indiscriminately against civilian populations. That is a step toward barbarism.

Third, restrictions on sea warfare aimed at protection of non-combatants and of ordinary neutral trade, have been thrown overboard. The Kaiser started it; in the first week of this war Hitler took over where he left off, with the sinking of the Athenia; now "Spurlos versenkt" is the rule he attempts to impose on the whole world. And that is barbarism.

Fourth, the slaughter of helpless hostages in revenge for acts of resistance in which they had no part was a practice which aroused indignation when the American Indians infrequently practiced it. Now it has become a regular tactic and technique for the holding down of conquered populations. When the Duke of Alva slaughtered his thousands of innocents in the Netherlands, the people of 400 years ago denounced him as a beast and a barbarian.

SERIAL STORY

MURDER IN PARADISE

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN

THE STORY: School teacher Mary O'Connor's heart goes out to young Jennie Morris, left alone with a stern but kindly old Mrs. Holmes, maid, by the mysterious murder of her aunt, Miss Miller. This, and the earlier murder of handsome Herbert Cord, who had courted Jennie for two summers only to bring Margie Dixon to Paradise Lake this year as his fiancée, have the quiet resort agog. Miss Miller had been one of its oldest residents, along with innkeeper Chris Gordon, Maudie, Mary's mother, peep-boos the inquest's conclusion that gangster Stush Veretti murdered Cord, although reporter Dennis Flynn, an old flame of Mary's, assigned to the case, is inclined to believe he did. Maudie discovered both bodies, and Mary and Dennis feel she knows more than she is revealing. Jennie tells Mary of a mysterious romance in Miss Miller's past. Then they talk of local editor Tod Palmer, obviously interested in Jennie.

CHRIS GORDON'S VISIT

CHAPTER XII

MAUDIE was getting back to her old self, but it didn't take too much coaxing to keep her in bed for another day. The past week had really given her enough thrills for a while and I guess she realized she wasn't as young and chipper as she would have liked to believe.

She still refused to discuss the finding of the boat and Miss Morris. "There's nothing more to tell," she answered tartly. "I've told you again and again all there is to tell." Denny and I didn't believe her.

She was abrupt with us both and became more petulant every time he reported new developments. The police in town had put Stush Veretti through a tough grilling, but there was still no confession. Additional people had been found who had seen him around the lake the evening of the crime—a gas station attendant, a lunch room clerk, and a farm boy who had given him directions. Denny said they'd undoubtedly hold him even though he hadn't found the gun that had fired the 32 slug into Herbert Cord's back.

To be sure, the murder of Miss Miller had, to put it mildly, thrown the Cord case into some confusion. The State Police felt they had things nearly solved until the second murder and then, Denny confessed, they were faced with two possibilities.

"There may be two separate barian. Today nasty little pig-eyed gauleiters are doing the same thing all over Europe. We have returned to what?

Populations are being uprooted and transferred bodily to unwished-for regions; millions are doing forced labor for the German Fuehrer; whole countries have been looted of their food and then informed that they must "co-operate" or starve. Education has been stifled and freedom handcuffed across the length and breadth of the whole continent.

If all this doesn't come pretty close to the predicted barbarism it will do until real barbarism comes along.

The Impossible Happens

Most of the glibest commentators on South America have emphasized this: the United States can never have much trade with Argentina; what they produce, we produce, and do not need to import.

Like so many other glib things, that's too easy. The fact is that today the United States has become Argentina's best customer, taking more than 35 per cent of her exports as against a 1940 share of 17 per cent.

Of course that is abnormal and due to the war, since most of Europe cannot buy from Argentina as it would wish. There is no assurance, however, that further changes may not be in progress. "After the War" may not be much like "Before the War," and there is at least a chance that much of this mutually beneficial gain in trade with Argentina may be retained and even increased if Europe returns to the South American market. Here, as everywhere, much depends on whether Hitler succeeds in reducing Europe to a single economic unit under his domination or whether trade regains a reasonable amount of freedom.

New Ways, New Pleasures

Though London has had no violent air raids for many weeks, the word is that many people continue to spend their nights in the shelters; in some of the better-equipped shelters as much as 35 per cent of their capacity is filled nightly, though there is no danger outside.

During the past year people grew accustomed to this nightly assembly in the underground dungeons. They learned to amuse one another; there were games organized, and a sort of community life appeared in the better dugouts. When danger temporarily passed, many of them missed their old friends of the dugouts, their old diversions. So back they went anyway, driven not by danger but by desire of accustomed association. Will it not seem strange to them after the war is over to go each night to their homes and sit quietly alone?

Even in small things like that, the war is changing people. Or is it a small thing, after all?

Efficiency consists in doing two things at once—because you're too lazy to do them one at a time.

It would help a lot if things were as easy to carry out as they are to figure out.

Other wretches have barred the stranglehold, why not dancers?

Many a flame is started by the flicker of an eyelash.

Among the books with unhappy endings are check books.

Dixonite Figures in Development of Olney Oil Project

J. F. Morse of this city and his associates have recently figured in the development of a new and vast oil field near Olney, Ill., which is to be expanded immediately. The development was made on a tract consisting of 187 acres known as the Nolf block near Olney, and additional lands are being acquired in that locality to further the venture.

A drill stem test made in the first well indicated a flow up to 2,000 barrels daily, it is reported from that field, which has been called the Grand Prairie pool. A second well is to be drilled in the field immediately. Mr. Morse has been notified, and work has been started on the erection of the derrick which will be put into operation as soon as erected. A drill stem test taken early this week in the first well was reported to have shown 800 feet of oil, 80 feet of oil-cut mud and 150 feet of water after an hour's test, which is indicative of a fair to good producing well.

The Dixon man has visited the new field and is very enthusiastic over the outlook in that section of Richland county. He is well known in business circles and during his residence in Dixon has sold several million acres of farm lands. He is now engaged in acquiring additional leases in the new Olney field.

Washington, Oct. 17.—It may have been significant that the Japanese selected the eve of a two-day holiday—during which time their newspapers were not being published—to bristle again at the United States.

Apparently they wanted their bristling noticed more outside their country than inside.

The fluctuating wrath of Tokyo caused considerably less than the expected reaction here. Over-committed in China, torn with political dissension within, threatened with economic starvation, Tokyo would have to exhibit a lot of wrath to frighten anyone.

Hitler has been slipping in all the pressure possible the last few days upon the Japanese government, urging a move—not further to the south where the Japs have been longingly gazing—but against Vladivostok where it would do him the most good.

Before the bristling started, the Japanese government did go as far as to move a considerable force up to its northern frontier nearest the Red seaport. The Russians have kept half a million men around there to defend their only Pacific outlet to the United States and Britain. The Japs have been able to accumulate about the same number in that area—at the expense of withdrawals from China.

Seizure of Vladivostok would disrupt the main American government connection with the Russians and create a problem for the American navy in those waters.

The only natural interest the Japs could possibly have in capturing the Vladivostok area, however, is to protect themselves from the possibility of bombing raids. This interest could hardly be sufficient to warrant such a military effort. The protection gained is clearly not worth the hazard of coming face to face with a vital American interest.

Of course if they were positive Stalin had collapsed (they would not dare anticipate the event very much in view of the mess in which Mussolini mired himself by too quickly anticipating the fall of Britain and France and joining the axis sincerely) they might reasonably try to cut themselves in on the new diplomatic game of acquiring any unprotected or indefensible territory lying around loose.

There are naval authorities here who fear war with Japan would result in a long struggle, but their opinion hardly fits the facts. They argue that Japan is well protected by a far-flung string of fortified islands. Her mainland is remote from any American attacking point. They see her only susceptible to severe destructive bombing from Alaska and a sea blockade.

A more impressive point is the fact that she is already blockaded, her economic life is obviously waning. She is far beyond help from Hitler. She would not have a chance of victory in the long or short run.

Overlooked (but certainly not in Tokyo) is the offensive which has been started by the Chinese, the first hit-back blow they have been able to muster since their government retreated to Chungking.

Originally the Japs tried twice to capture the populous city of Chinghsia, finally succeeding on the third attempt. Their radio immediately announced then that all China had fallen.

The Chinese have been creeping back around the city the past few weeks. They succeeded in the end in cutting off communications of the Jap forces there.

Nothing of this was published in the Tokyo press, of course, but a fatuous official announcement has now been published pretending that the city was no longer of consequence and that the Jap forces had gladly given it up. They were lucky to have escaped.

Another smaller town to the south, Ichang, had long been held by the Japs. The Chinese claim now to have captured it.

If Japan wants war with anyone, in view of these circumstances, she can no doubt get it.

Though last Sunday was a beautiful day to go on long trips, the re-dedication of the Presbyterian church was the gathering place for one of the largest crowds of the fall and the service was pronounced one of great beauty and effectiveness.

F. J. Bienfang spoke for the trustees on the inception of the redecoration project, some of the difficulties met, the financing and the response of the people, and presented the finished work to the congregation.

The people then sang the Dedication hymn and joined in the dedication prayer. The choir sang "How Beautiful is Thy Dwelling Place". The pastor spoke of the ever-springing hope of the church in the midst of the darkest days, and Mrs. Bienfang sang a solo.

Next Sunday the sermon theme is "The Goodness and Severity of God", showing the place of Almighty God in modern world events.

The Sunday school teacher study group met Thursday evening at the manse.

The Christian Endeavor has been reorganized and is showing considerable interest. Mrs. George Bassler is the new sponsor. Raymond Brown is president, John McKinness, vice president, Wilma Klewin, secretary, and Frances Stouffer, treasurer. Miss Betty Ann Kopp will be the leader next Sunday. The young people have taken up a very interesting study book, and any young person will do well to investigate this as a place to spend an hour on Sunday afternoons. Meeting at 5:30.

Egler who was run out of bounds on the Dixon 48 ...

Dixon's first touchdown drive was underway. Joynit carried the ball on first down and on second down Quilhot made it first down to the Belvidere 35.

Lateral Pass ...

Dixon kicked off to Belvidere and Beck was stopped on the 25. On the first place Beck hit the line to the 19 and then Moore went around right end to the be thrown for a two yard loss. Again he was stopped. Beck pointed to Egler who skirted the left end for a run back of 20 yards to the Belvidere 36.

Quilhot was stopped for an gain on an off-tackle smash and Egler was tossed for a slippery 12 yard loss. Egler's pass over the line to Shank failed and he was forced to punt to Culvey who was stopped by Hoeman on the Belvidere 19.

Beck picked up a yard through the right side of the line before he was brought down by Shiaras and Weidman and then Taylor made it first down to the 31 on a right end run. Loftus made the tackle.

Potts stopped Beck for no gain and Joynit and Quilhot halted him after a gain of two yards. Taylor went through right guard for a half yard and Beck punted to Egler who was halted on the Dixon 40.

On first down Egler fumbled and Stehley of Belvidere recovered on the Dukes' 45.

Belvidere was penalized 15 yards for holding and Taylor's pass to Beck was good to the Belvidere 46. Again Belvidere was penalized 5 yards for too many times out and on the next play Taylor slipped in the mud and was brought down on the Belvidere 38 which constituted a definite "break" for the Dukes.

Loftus passed to Shank who caught the ball on his finger tips and romped to the Belvidere 25 as the half ended.

Starting the third period Dixon took the ball on the 37 after the opening kickoff and Egler's pass over the line to Shank was good to the 46. Another pass—a long one—failed and then Quilhot went through center on a delayed back first a first down to the Belvidere 45.

Egler tried another pass to Shank but it failed and Quilhot hit the right side of the line for a yard. Another pass—Egler to Shank—failed and then Egler booted a beauty to the Belvidere two-yard line.

Beck kicked from behind his goal and Egler caught the ball on the 35 and cut across field and zig-zagged to the Belvidere 15 an excellent run back.

Quilhot pulled a delayed back trick out of his helmet and went through center to the six. Then he smashed through for a first down to the Belvidere three. Quilhot made another yard through center and Loftus carried the ball over for a touchdown. Quilhot tried a line plunge for the extra point but was halted.

After the kickoff Belvidere took the ball on its own 41 and Taylor made two yard around left end before Weidman threw him. Loftus broke up a pass from Taylor intended for Beyers and Moore punted to the Dixon 46.

Pass Intercepted ...

Egler's pass over the line was intercepted by Moore on the mid-stripe. Belvidere failed to make yardage and Beck's punt was taken by Egler who was dropped on the Dixon 30. A pass back of the line from Egler to Loftus to Quilhot failed and a pass from Egler to Weidman was broken up. Quilhot was stopped for no gain and Egler's punt was blocked. The ball rolled back of the goal where he fell on it to prevent a Belvidere touchdown, but the visitors garnered two points on the safety.

The ball was brought out to the 20 from where Weaver kicked to the mid-stripe. Taylor lost 10 yards on the first play when he was spilled by Weaver and then Moore skirted left end for a first down to the 36 where Egler tackled him.

Potts three Taylor for a three-yard loss before he cracked left guard and tackle to the 38. Taylor's pass to Beyers was good to the 30 but Belvidere was penalized for holding and failed to make the yardage.

Fumbles and Recoveries ...

Quilhot went through center, fumbled and recovered for a two yard gain and landed on the Dixon 34. Joynit and Quilhot carried on the next two plays and made a first down to the Dixon 45 as the third period ended.

ROCK FALLS AND ROCHELLE TIED IN LEAGUE RACE

Polo Defeats Morrison For First Conference Victory Last Eve

ROCK RIVER CONFERENCE ...

GAMES LAST NIGHT ...

In the Rock River league, too, it looks as if Halloween is the important date. It's on that night when the Rock Falls and Rochelle leaders of the conference will meet and the championship may be decided.

The Hubs and Rockets moved along in the conference warfare last night to remain tied and undefeated on the top perch.

Rock Falls thumped Mt. Morris, 26 to 0, last night to roll up the sixth victory of an excellent season. The winners scored one touchdown in each of the four periods of the game.

In the first period Captain Hunsberger drove through tackle for the first Rock Falls' goal and the attempt for the extra point failed.

In the second period Barnhart scored and again the conversion was unsuccessful. In the third stanza Spencer passed the Hunsberger for another six points and then he passed to Robert McMurry for the extra point.

The same two players in the fourth period (passes from Spencer to Hunsberger and Hunsberger to McMurry) added another seven points to the score.

Rochelle vs. Amboy ...

At Rochelle the home team had a much tougher time in the game with Amboy and only a first quarter touchdown saved the game for the Hubs.

In four straight first downs the Rochellers drove to the goal line with Quarterback Andy Benz going over from the 10-yard line on a right end run. A pass from Kunde to Benz failed in an attempt for the extra point.

Amboy threatened the Hubs' goal in the third period when Glesner romped 40 yards to the 10-yard stripe, but the Hubs took the ball on downs after a fumble, incomplete pass and losses on two line plays set the Irish back to the 23.

Amboy threatened again in the last quarter by gaining 25 yards on two pass plays but the drive was halted on the Rochelle 30.

Polo vs. Morrison ...

Polo scored its first victory of the season last night in a 6 to 0 decision over Morrison on the winners' home field.

Polo scored in the second period when Captain Jack Terry, fullback, went over the line on a delayed back from the two yard line. The Mercos had made a sustained 40-yard push to pay territory. Morrison won the lightweight game, 13 to 0.

yard and then Quilhot, on a spinner, went through center first a first down to the visitors' 42.

Joynit went nine yards through left guard and tackle and Quilhot made it first down to the 30 on a center smash.

Dixon was penalized for offside and Joynit lost five more yards on a fumble and recovery. Quilhot went through center for eight yards and Joynit went through right guard and tackle for a first down to the Belvidere 20.

Gilbert made six yards to the 14 and then hit the line for another first down to the 5-yard stripe.

Joynit went through center to the 13-yard marker and then Quilhot spun through the center of the line for the third and last touchdown. Weaver's place kick failed.

Belvidere started from the 25 after the kickoff and on second down a ball-carrier fumbled and Edwards of Dixon recovered on the Belvidere 27.

Collins and Gilbert did the carrying for the Dukes but failed to make the necessary yardage and Egler punted over the goal line.

Dixon Cafe Team Has Three-Game Margin in League

Maybe the Major League bowlers were concentrating on that party at the Rainbow Inn last night which followed the league session. At any rate, they didn't do much in the way of changing the standings and records of the circuit.

Sunnybrook was the only quintet to win three games and by thus doing moved into a three-way share for second place along with Reynolds wire and Dixon Paint. The Dixon Cafe team holds a three-game margin for first place.

The Sunnybrookers swept the series from the Hunter company as McCordie rolled a 588 series for the winners and Knox' 423 was tops for the losers.

Dixon Cafe leaders won two games from Reynolds wire. Leading the winners was Worley with a 575 count and Becker rolled 551 for the wiremen.

Freeman Shoes won two games from Schlitz. Topping the shoe-men was Meyers with 526 and McBride chalked up 466 for Schlitz.

Hub Tavern spilled Dixon Paint in two games as Longman scored 478 for the winners and Van Dorn counted 545 for the losers.

High games last night included those of Van Dorn 219; Wolfe 212; Worley 212; Becker 212; Bishop 209; McCordie 213.

STERLING AND DEKALB WIN IN CIRCUIT GAMES

Hallowe'en Battle To Determine Champions Of North Central CONFERENCE STANDINGS ...

GAMES LAST NIGHT ...

Unless Sterling's football team can trip DeKalb on Halloween in a ghostly upset, the Barbs are destined to cop the North Central conference's football championship for 1941.

Last night the DeKalbers won their third conference victory with a 26 to 7 decision over Mendota.

Mendota scored in the first quarter after blocking a punt and taking the ball on DeKalb's three-yard stripe. Faber went over the line for the touchdown and Edwards plunged for the conversion.

The score was knotted later in the same period when Wright of DeKalb carried the ball over the goal line after a series of line plays from about mid-field. The extra point was added when Hrnjak went through the line. In the third period Sophomore Wisdom raced 35 yards to cross the Mendota goal. The try for the extra point failed.

In the final quarter DeKalb scored twice. A 12-yard pass from Cook to Moser was successful for a touchdown. Less than a minute later, McKane intercepted a Mendota pass and ran 35 yards for the final touchdown. Davis place-kicked the extra point.

Sterling Defeats Princeton ...

At Sterling Coach Ted Scheid's scored in the last three periods after Princeton had taken the jump with a touchdown in the opening canto.

Princeton scored first when the Tigers recovered a Sterling fumble on their own 21-yard line.

With Rumley doing most of the ball-carrying, the visitors made six first downs in a row on a march to the Sterling goal. Rumley plunged over from the one-yard line for the touchdown and then cracked the line on a plunge for the extra point.

Sterling drove 60 yards in the second period to a touchdown with Harry Woodyatt doing most of the gaining and going over to pay dirt on a six-yard run. He then place-kicked the extra point to knot the score at halftime.

A 40-yard drive by the Scheid-men in the third quarter added another touchdown with Galloway driving through for the goal. Woodyatt's place kick for the extra point was too wide.

Leonard started another Sterling drive in the last period when he intercepted a pass. Woodyatt gained 17 yards on two plays. Riser picked up 15 yards and Woodyatt went around end on a reverse to a touchdown. His attempted place kick for the extra point was blocked.

The Sterling-Princeton underclassmen battled to a scoreless tie.

Dixon Frsh-Soph Team Wins Fourth Victory Last Eve

Dixon substitutions: Lloyd, Burkett, Cruse, Bivins, Cooley, Frey, Wilson.

With 56 fans—by actual count—huddled in the rain drenched stands on the west side of the field, the Dixon freshman-sophomore team moved through the mud to a 12 to 0 victory over the Belvidere underclassmen here last night.

The Winger-lads had more pepper than a boarding house noon hour and they talked it up with enthusiasm which pushed 'em right along in the mud. It was their fourth victory in five games.

They scored their first touchdown in the opening stanza when Alexander galloped 10 yards around left end to the goal. Meinke's attempted kick for the conversion failed.

In the third canto Alexander skirted right end to the Belvidere 25 for a first down. Frey went through the line to the 18 and Cooper made it another first down to the 11 as he went around left end.

Alexander cut through right guard and tackle to the six-yard stripe and after a pass from Frey to Walters failed, Frey took the ball around right end across the goal. After trying the point and being called twice for offside, the third time the kick was blocked.

Future Enlisted Pilots

These three serious young enlisted men of the U. S. Army Air Corps are getting acquainted with a pursuit plane at Hamilton Field, California. They are studying to become Staff Sergeant Pilots, and are among the first enlisted men of the Regular Army to enroll as Aviation Students, newly created grade similar to that of Aviation Cadet, but requiring slightly less rigid preliminary educational requirements. Upon successfully completing their course of instruction, they will be appointed Staff Sergeant Pilots and assigned to Air Corps units. Left to right: Corporal James R. Tucker, Corporal Gordon D. Sentell, and Staff Sergeant Norris D. McDaniel.

Some of the young enlisted men of the army of the United States who formerly watched with envy as pilots of the Air Corps flew the sleek ships of the modern air force overhead, or who scurried into the underbrush when an attack plane zoomed at them in maneuvers, may now shed their ground anchors and do the flying and zooming themselves. Sgt. Roy Shelton, U. S. Army recruiting officer, said today.

The army's rapidly increasing plane power offers opportunity for enlisted men to become pilots. He pointed out, and for those groundlings who dreamed of winging through space at the controls of some of the best military airplanes in the world, opportunity is knocking.

"Their ship is coming in," Sgt. Shelton put it. "Only it's not the story book ship laden with wealth and fortune—it's an airplane.

ready to speed them into the future as swiftly as man can travel."

Enlisted men who are high school graduates, who are single, between 18 and 22 years old and in good physical condition, may become aviation students, he said. In addition, the applicant agrees to serve for three years as an enlisted pilot if he successfully completes his pilot training. At the conclusion of his training he receives the rank of staff sergeant pilot, and takes his place as an important part of the swiftly growing air force of the United States.

"It looks pretty good to me," Sgt. Shelton said. "Here's a chance to get off the ground and to aid the country by helping yourself. No man can regret learning to fly, for the future of aviation is as big as the future of the country."

Rock river were Mrs. Edward Myers and grandson Bobby Myers, Mrs. L. E. Sheller and Mrs. Bechtel all of Dixon.

Hillison, Amboy; Clayton Bowers and Floyd A. Schafer of Ashton.

Change in Meeting

One of the most important changes in the 102nd Rock River conference which was held the past week in Wilmette was changing the conference sessions to June, in 1942. The first 12 sessions of the conference were held in July and August, but for the past 90 years they have been held in the autumn. It is planned to make this year a three-quarters conference year. The change will be advantageous to ministers with children going to school, and will also prevent many ministers from losing their votes in fall elections on account of moving.

Several changes were made in the appointments this year among which is Rev. A. J. Tavenner, former local pastor and for the past seven years pastor of the Centennial church in Rockford, has been assigned to the Fourth Street church in Sterling, with an increase of $700 in salary. The Sterling church is one of the large churches in the Joliet-Dixon district. Rev. Timothy B. Reeves was returned to the Ashton and Franklin Grove churches. Former local pastors returned to their various charges were: Rev. Alfred tor, Choir practice at 7:30 on Wednesday evening. The Ladies Aid on Wednesday. Sunday morning will be Home Day for our Brethren Home at Mt. Morris for aged members of the church. An offering will be lifted for the Home. We invite you to all our services. S. L. Cover, pastor.

Eloppments Keep Pace With Civilization

Stories and sung through the centuries have been the records of elopements, of which Illinois had its share during the earliest days of the state, according to the Illinois Writers' Project. W. P. A. Fairplay, a mining town near the boundary line of Illinois and Wisconsin, appears to have been the first "Gretna Green" in this part of the country. Denied parental consent, young men and women from both states went to Fairplay, where the American House was the scene of many a hasty marriage, with the aid of an accommodating justice of the peace.

Hennepin's 1687 Map Locates Galena Mine

More than 250 years ago the presence of lead and zinc at and near the present city of Galena was known to explorers, and the metal was mined, according to the Illinois Writers' Project, W. P. A. Father Hennepin's map of 1687 locates one of the mines. French traders at Peoria are said to have bought lead from Indians as early as 1690. Desultory surface mining was practiced for many years. Comprehensive mining appears to have begun by Julien Dubuque nearly a century after the Peoria traders bought lead from the Indians.

Starretts Donate Deed for Memorial to Presbyterians

Synod Will Establish "Center" on Property West of This City

The deed for approximately 80 acres of beautiful wooded land located about three miles west of Dixon in Nelson township, along the picturesque Rock river has been deeded to the Presbyterian Synod of Illinois by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Starrett, Jr. of this city, the deed being delivered to the Rev. Herbert J. Doran, pastor of the Dixon Presbyterian church, on Sept. 10 of this year.
